

Wisconsin's No Call list is probably the most popular pieces of consumer legislation we have in this state. It has been wonderful for my family, primarily because it gives us peace when we are home. We have no trouble contacting businesses with whom we patronize. We definitely do not need, nor do we want, our state law weakened.